THANKSGIVING! SIX YEARS AND COUNTING.....

The end is in sight - of the school year at Community Hope anyway. Our grand finale will be Thursday night November 25th - Thanksgiving Day. We are truly thankful. That evening will be our annual Christmas play with all 87 of our Grade 1- 6 students playing a part. Jodie DeVries, our art and drama teacher with the help of Sandy Echols, our dance teacher, Sarah and Adam Wright, the choir directors, plus all the other teaching staff have made a tremendous effort to make this the biggest and best Christmas play yet. I am excited and full of anticipation for what God will do. Parents, Aunties, Uncles, Oumas and Oupas of our student body will all be attending. We expect over 300. I wish all of you, our loyal supporters could come. But, since that is impossible, let me give you a year end Director's report.

A YEAR OF JUBILEE!

YWAM celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2010 and we made Jubilation our theme for the year. A year to celebrate what God has done. While it has only been 5 years since CHS opened its doors we too have seen God's generous provision of funds, friends and teachers He has sent our way. This year alone we have added 10 new staff and volunteers. Next year we will add more as the school grows into 7 full grades. We are still negotiating with the Municipality of Windhoek for land where we can build a new school. An acclaimed architect from South Africa, Wim Swart, a dear friend, has offered to do all the plans we need for the builders as soon as we get the land. Please pray for an positive answer soon. I meet with the head of planning for the Ministry of Education next Monday.

TEACHER'S BONUS

Every year end we give our staff and teachers a bonus. Some work all year without salary, raising their own support to work at Community Hope. Many of you are already sponsoring students at CHS monthly with a gift of $30 or more. We would really like to give a special thanks to our staff this year as a reward for all the hard work they have put in. Sort of our way of saying "THANKS" for a job well done. Please email a response ASAP to me at sjnhunter@me.com if you would like to donate to this special need. Send your gift to Community Hope School "Teachers Bonus" P.O. Box 2108 Lindale, TX 75771. All funds that come in before next Thursday will be added to their year end check. All donations are tax deductible.

May you and your family have a wonderful Thanksgiving.

In His love,

Suzanne Hunter
