AND HE SHALL TURN THE HEARTS OF THE FATHERS TO THEIR CHILDREN, AND THE HEARTS OF THE CHILDREN TO THEIR FATHERS, LEST I COME AND SMITE THE EARTH WITH A CURSE.

Theodore Sebatane was one of my "first ten" at Community Hope School. He is one of our few children with a mom and a dad. Oddly enough, many of our students who have both parents are often more troubled than our orphans and those from single parent families. Theodore, the youngest of a large family, has always wanted to be a pastor. His eyes shine with a longing and a hope for a future better than the life he now knows. From the first days at school, Theodore had trouble remembering colors and shapes. Last year we kept him back for lack of reading skills. He was still not reading after hours of attention at school.

Parents are usually the best way to reach the child's heart. Most of our kids moms and dads are in the bars if still alive. Under a little pressure, Theodore's Dad, agreed to read with his son. A week later, Theodore began to read. Everyone present in the classroom, gave Theodore a standing ovation. He has begun his road to success! Thank you for your part in helping us raise up Theodore, along with the 75 other children at Community Hope School. Your prayers and financial giving is appreciated more than words can tell!
